GET PUBLISHED IN 2010

IT IS THE SECRET WISH for millions of people. They dream about getting a book published. According to Susan Driscoll and Diane Gedymin in Get Published! "...83 percent of Americans ...say they want to write a book. Yet few ever do." Many people make some attempt at writing a book but they have no background in the publishing world to even know where to get started. Instead of pursuing their dreams with full force, they remain unfulfilled without anyone to guide them in the process.

Over the last 20 years, Terry Whalin has met many people who have this desire to get published and taught at numerous writers' conferences. The author of more than 60 books with traditional publishers and a journalist who has written for more than 50 print publications, Whalin has poured his skill and experience into JUMPSTART YOUR PUBLISHING DREAMS, INSIDER SECRETS

And that's not just for unpublished writers either."

Michael S. Hyatt, CEO and President of Thomas Nelson, one of the largest publishers said, "Publishing is a complex business. Because Terry has been a magazine editor, an acquisitions book editor, an author and now a literary agent, he knows the inside scoop. Jumpstart captures his experience and serves it in easy-to-apply portions for every reader."
